Reservoir Park Centennial Set for September 12

Reservoir Park, a part of Crescent Hill located just east of the Louisville Water Company's reservoir, celebrates its centennial this month, after more than a year of planning for the event and improvements to the area.

The Reservoir Park Centennial Committee has viewed the centennial as a way of renewing pride in the neighborhood. To improve the appearance of the area, the group has sponsored a "Yard of the Week" contest. It has also installed the new neighborhood entrance signs shown at right, with the help of Alderman Melissa Mershon and the Crescent Hill Community Council. The history of the neighborhood is being preserved in a residents' directory and an exhibit for Centennial Day, which will also feature a picnic.

For more about Reservoir Park's Centennial, see page 2. Happy Birthday Reservoir Park and congratulations Centennial Committee!

Council Memberships Expire on October 1 - Renew or Join Today!

The Crescent Hill Community Council, which publishes this newsletter and puts on free neighborhood events like the Old Fashioned Fourth of July, relies on membership dues to help pay the bills. Memberships are $6.00 for a household or business.

The Council operates on an October 1 - September 30 fiscal year, and dues are payable as of October 1. If you are a current member, you should be receiving a reminder postcard in the mail toward the end of September, but you can save us postage by clipping the form to the left and sending it in now.

If you've never been a member, please join us. In the last year, we've contributed to the rejuvenation of the Crescent Hill Library, planted shrubs and flowers on Frankfort Avenue and Grinstead Drive, assisted with the Reservoir Park Centennial and helped give you a voice in every request for a zoning change or variance in the neighborhood. We also sponsored a free Holiday Open House at the Peterson-Dumesnil House in addition to the Old Fashioned Fourth of July.

Clip the form at left - and help us do even more in 1992-1993.

From The President

For 17 years, United Crescent Hill Ministries has been serving the people of Crescent Hill, Clifton and Clifton Heights in ways many of us never see but others could not do without.

UCHM annually delivers thousands of Meals on Wheels to people confined to their homes. It also serves thousands of lunches at the UCHM Senior Center. In helping people overcome financial crises, UCHM provides food to thousands through the Dare to Care program and helps people pay for essential items, like utilities and rent.

The organization relies on volunteers for many of its programs. Mariann Liebell, Coordinator of Volunteer Services, is always looking for people with a few hours to spare. Mariann's telephone number is 893-0346.

UCHM also relies on financial contributions from neighborhood residents. On Saturday, October 3, it will sponsor "Move-A-Long '92," an event in which you can run, walk, skate or skip on a 2.5 mile course (or 1.2 mile shortcut) through Crescent Hill and Clifton, starting and finishing at the Kentucky School for the blind. The entry fee is $5.00 if paid by September 17th and $6.00 after September 17th. For more information, call 893-0346 or 894-8029.

Join your neighbors and help UCHM "Move-A-Long" on October 3.

Reservoir Park Update

As the time grows near for our Centennial celebration on September 12th, we wish to acknowledge the efforts of those persons who have made a contribution toward the success of that day.

Thank you to Russ Maple and the Frankfort Avenue Business Association for their sponsorship of our Resident Directory/Centennial Celebration Guide which will be distributed on Centennial Day. We also appreciate the Association providing carriage rides through the neighborhood as one of our scheduled events as well as Russ' personal involvement to coordinate those activities.

The Crescent Hill Community Council has agreed to fund the cost of replacing the neighborhood entrance sign on Fenley Avenue which had been vandalized shortly after being placed there. Thanks to Bill Hollander and the Board of Directors of the Council for this generous gesture. We appreciate your support of our neighborhood, and having the new sign will make our celebration more complete!

A special note of thanks and acknowledgement is due the committee members of the Centennial Committee who have worked for many months for the success of our celebration. Their hard work and dedication has resulted in an exciting schedule of events planned for our 100th birthday celebration. The committee members are: Shirley Botkins, Mary Burton, Dennis Cornell, Rosie Cusick, Stacy Grimm, Carol Von Hoven, Pat Meteja, Pat Osborne, Dick Osborne, Sue Ritman, Al Ruffra, Pat Ruffra, Jon Schmidt, John Schmidt and Pat Schmidt. Thank you to Sunny Cornell for her special contribution as secretary for the Centennial Committee.

Our "Centennial Yard of the Week" activity has been a huge success generating much interest and response among neighbors. We've all anticipated the winner each week. The most recent winners are: John and Sarah Beard, 207 Blackburn; Steve and Anna Mershon, 276 Claremont; Jean and Mike Newman, 122 Fenley Avenue; Al and Pat Ruffra, 223 Blackburn; and Phil Rich and Claudia Foulkes, 142 N. Crestmoor. Thanks to all of these neighbors!

T-shirts with the Reservoir Park logo can be ordered through Barbara Hall, 454-6720. Mugs with the same logo can be ordered through Pottery Rowe, 896-0877.

We are still accepting materials that can be used in our exhibit of memorabilia. If you are interested in placing an item in the exhibit or wish information, contact Pat Schmidt 896-4516.

Finally, we wish to invite neighbors past and present to join us on September 12th for a day of celebration and fellowship. We will be relaxing with our friends at the neighborhood picnic, playing volleyball or pitching horseshoes, taking a carriage ride and enjoying the reception and exhibit at Mary Burton's home. The day's activities will begin with dedication of the neighborhood sign and tree on the median on Blackburn Street. Mark your calendar now and plan to join us.
